

2018 ALBERT BORISH AWARD

GUIDELINES FOR NOMINATION

Nomination Deadline: May 1, 2018

Named in honor of an AGD leader and faculty member of Temple University Dental School, who was blind; yet exhibited courage in the face of adversity. Dr. Borish decided to focus his career on continuing dental education. He served as director of the division of continuing dental education at Temple University, his alma mater and was also chair of the AGD's Council on Continuing Education. Dr. Borish initiated the AGD Fellowship and Mastership programs. He served as president and editor of the Philadelphia County Dental Society and a trustee of the Pennsylvania Dental Association.

Award Profile

- A member or non-member, dentist or non-dentist is eligible for nomination.
- Exhibits courage in the face of adversity (physical, emotional, etc).
- Demonstrates dedication far beyond the average to the advancement of the profession.
- Has been innovative in the promulgation of constructive programs.
- Exhibits selflessness and has a deep interest in all facets of dentistry.
- Demonstrates tenacity of purpose in carrying out goals and ideals which benefit the profession and the public.

Guidelines and Selection Process

- May not hold a current position on the AGD Board or Regional Directors.
- Nominations may only be submitted by an active AGD member.
- A nominator is limited to one Borish Award nomination per year.
- The award will not be given to the same individual more than once; therefore, past recipients are ineligible.
- A completed nomination form, letter of recommendation, along with a copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae (CV), must be received at AGD Headquarters by May 1, 2018.
- Other supporting documentation to substantiate the character of the nominee may also be submitted (testimonials, photos, newsletters, articles).
- It shall be the duty of the Awards Committee to act as the Screening Committee for all nominees.
- Staff will forward all nominations and supplemental materials to the Awards Committee for consideration.
- Each committee member will independently evaluate and select the individual nominee most deserving of the award.
- Typically, only one award is granted annually. However, if the caliber of nominees is particularly outstanding, two awards may be granted.
- If a nominee does not meet the aforementioned criteria, the Awards Committee has the option to forgo recommending that recipient to the AGD Board.
- The Awards Committee will present its final selection(s) to the AGD Board for approval.

Award Presentation

The recipient will be presented with the Albert Borish Award at the 2018 Annual Meeting in Chicago.
