Review the following definition of continuing dental education (CDE):

CONTINUING DENTAL EDUCATION (CDE): Educational activities designed to review existing concepts and techniques, to convey information beyond basic dental education, and to update knowledge on advances in dental and medical sciences. The objective is to improve the knowledge, skills, and ability of the individual to deliver the highest quality of service to the public and profession. The basic sciences and behavioral and social sciences should be considered inseparable from technical knowledge in their influence on the professional person and, for this reason, educational experiences in these areas are an equally valid part of CDE. CDE programs are usually of short duration and are not structured or sequenced to provide academic credit toward a certificate or degree. Such courses are not applicable to advanced standing in specialty education programs.

CDE courses are conducted in a wide variety of forms using many methods and techniques and are sponsored by a diverse group of institutions, schools, and organizations. CDE should favorably enrich past educational experience. These programs should make it possible for dentists and allied team members to attune dental practice to modern knowledge as it continuously becomes available. All CDE should strengthen the habits of critical inquiry and balanced judgment that denote the truly professional and scientific person.

- | | | |
|---|-----|----|
| 5. Does your organization offer a planned program of CDE activities consistent with the definition of continuing dental education listed above? | Yes | No |
|---|-----|----|

Review the following definition of a program provider:

PROGRAM PROVIDER: An agency (institution or organization) that is responsible for organizing, administering, publicizing, presenting, and keeping records for the CDE program. The program provider assumes both the professional and fiscal liability for the conduct and quality of the program. If the program provider contracts or agrees with another organization or institution to provide facilities, faculty, or other support for the CDE activity, the approved program provider must ensure that the facilities, faculty, or support provided meet the standards and criteria for recognition. The program provider remains responsible for the overall educational quality of the CDE activity.

- | | | |
|--|-----|----|
| 6. Does your organization assume the financial and administrative responsibility of planning, publicizing and offering the CDE program consistent with the above definition of a program provider? | Yes | No |
| 7. Does your organization have at least one permanent location in the United States (U.S.) or Canada? | Yes | No |
| 8. Does your organization ensure that all courses offered for CDE credit have a sound scientific basis in order to adequately protect the public? | Yes | No |
| 9. Does your organization ensure that the educational methods are appropriate to the stated objectives for the activity and, when participation is involved, enrollment must be related to available resources to ensure effective participation by enrollees? | Yes | No |
| 10. Does your organization ensure that the facilities selected for each activity are appropriate to accomplishing the educational method(s) being used and the stated educational objectives? | Yes | No |
| 11. Does your organization ensure that, upon completion of a CDE course intended toward attainment of certification or other recognition through the program provider, participating dentists will not be obligated, as a condition for attaining or maintaining that certification or recognition, to utilize a volume of any products and/or services. | Yes | No |

Review the following information regarding Commercial or Promotional Conflict of Interest:

The PACE standards and criteria are designed to ensure that: CDE activities promote improvement in oral healthcare and not a specific drug, device, service or technique of a commercial entity.

- If commercial relationships exist between the CDE provider, course presenters and/or a commercial company and its products, they must be fully disclosed to participants.
- CDE providers must disclose to participants in CDE activities any potential conflicts of interest the planners and lecturer/author/instructors or a CDE activity may have.
- Disclosure must be made at the beginning of the CDE activity and must be made in writing in publicity materials, course materials and/or audiovisual materials. Financial and/or in-kind aid is acknowledged in printed announcement and brochures

- | | | |
|--|-----|----|
| 12. Does your organization ensure that all CDE activities will promote improvements in oral healthcare, or if practice-management topics are offered, the CDE activities will serve the interest and needs of the profession and not a specific drug, device, service or technique of a commercial entity? (XII, S:1a) | Yes | No |
| 13. Does your organization ensure that any and all potential conflicts of interest between the CDE planners, instructors/presenters, authors or the CDE activity itself is disclosed to potential participants in advance and at the beginning of the CDE activity? (XII, S:1c) | Yes | No |
